FRIENDS QUARTERLY MEETING AT HORSHAM

Business Transacted at Last Session of Abington Quarterly Before Yearly Meeting—Representatives and Clerks Named—Queries Answered.

Abington Quarterly Meeting of Friends was held at Horsham meeting house on Fifth-day, 5th mo. 4th, 1911, commencing at 10 a. m. A large number were present. About eleven o'clock the business meeting was opened. It being the Quarterly Meeting immediately preceding the Yearly Meeting, to be held in Philadelphia, commencing 5th mo. 15th, all the 14 queries were read with their answers. The summaries were carefully considered. The reports of the schools were encouraging.

The representatives appointed by this meeting to attend the Yearly Meeting were Israel Halliwell, Charles Jarrett, Mary E. Thomson and Clara Waas, from Abington; William J. Halliwell, Susan H. Jarrett, Albert Atkinson and Priscilla Walton, from Horsham; William Walton, Rachel Johnson, Francis Tomlinson and Sara W. Knight, from Byberry; Annie F. Ambler, Samuel Livezey, Margaret Dager and Morris Jarrett, from Gwynedd, and Thomas Strawn, Elizabeth A. Kitchen.

The committee on clerks reported. They proposed the name of Joseph T. Foulke for clerk, Susan H. Jarrett, assistant clerk, and Benjamin F. Penrose for correspondent, with which the meeting united. They were appointed to these services the ensuing year. After other reports of committees the clerk made a few closing remarks on the subject of the increasing number of persons being joined in membership with Friends.

Announcement was made that lunch had been provided for all and a pleasant social time was enjoyed while eating of it.

SIGHTS SEEN ON BRIEF VISIT TO GERMANY

Dr. J. B. Carrell Writes Entertainingly of His Sea and Land Travels in the Great German Nation—Berlin, Dresden and Handsome Buildings, Statues, Pictures, Etc.—Barge—Buffeted by Angry Seas for Many Days.

On Board Steamer "Prinz Adalbert," April 16th to May 2nd, 1911. Dear Editors and Readers of the Public Spirit:—

At 3.30 a. m., your last night at sea, how would you like to be awakened by the Chief Steward rushing into your cabin and shouting: "Collision! Collision! Dress quick and come on deck!" At this time we were about leaving the North Sea and entering the Elbe river, and it is needless to say we did not make a very elaborate toilet and in a few minutes were on deck.

The new double house being erected by Contractor Specht for Mr. Albrecht, on the Davistown road, is under roof.

ABINGTON

GIDEON STODDART DEAD.

Retired Merchant Dies from Complication of Diseases.

Gideon Stoddart, 65 years old, of Rydal, died at the German hospital Tuesday, after an illness of several weeks from a complication of diseases. A few days ago he underwent an operation.

He was the son of Joseph M. Stoddart, a member of the firm of Curwen Stoddart & Bro., which was among the early large dry goods firms established in Philadelphia.

Mr. Stoddart was for many years in the wholesale harness business, but recently he had been living a retired life. He was a member of the Abington club and of the country place at Rydal or on his estate at Stoddartville. He married his cousin, Dr. Janney Stoddart, some years ago, and she survives him. He is also survived by a brother, Curwen Stoddart, and a sister, Mrs. George F. Lamm, who was a member of the board of governors of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club and was connected with the "Dorchester Home" as the Haynes Mechanic's home.

Mrs. Fred Sprague is on the sick list. Mrs. B. T. Roberts is entertaining her sister, from Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Hicks was the guest of her sister at Doylestown on Sunday. Miss Florence Wright of Hatboro, Pa., has been visiting in the city.

The Abington base ball club was defeated Friday in a score of 18 to 5 at Hatboro. They will play the Doylestown club on Monday next on the Abington ground.

The Abington racket ball team are displaying their silver loving cup at the post office. This is the trophy won during the winter from the Montgomery County League, of which they were members.

A linen shower was given Miss Hicks at her home on Monday evening. Miss Kruse is expected to be married the coming summer to Sidney Silbert of Glenside.

A tennis court is now laid out at the High school grounds. The boys are anxious to remove the old, which the school board will take hold and assist in getting the grounds in readiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeel, of Reading, who have been visiting John Schriver and family, like this country so well that they have taken a house at Jenkintown and will remove there.

A debate between the girls of the junior class and the boys of the senior class was held at the school on Thursday evening. The subject was "The question was 'the right of suffrage by women.' The girls carried the affirmative and the seniors the negative. Rev. James Williams was judge.

Conductor Holst was hurt Tuesday night when there was a collision between the trolley cars on York road, this village. The pole of one car came off, falling in the tracks. It was hit by a closely following car. It is said the rear end lamp was extinguished. Holst was taken to the Jewish hospital for treatment.

THE PRESIDENT AND DOCTORS.

The greatest medical social event of this country was the reception tendered President William H. Taft, by the Philadelphia Medical Society, at Hotel Bellevue-Stratford, on Thursday evening, and the President converted him into a patient.

He was introduced to the great work of the American medical men had accomplished in the last few years. It was pronounced kind to the great work of the American medical men had accomplished in the last few years.

He had driven to overcome for nearly two hundred years. The affair was brilliant from beginning to end, and was attended by more than one thousand physicians. From this locality, Drs. Walton, McElhatten, Erdman, Hough, Hannum and Carrell were present.

JAMISON

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Mattis visited in Ivyland on Sunday.

William Conrad and family visited relatives in Hatboro, Pa., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holbert visited relatives in Hatboro on Sunday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hough on Sunday.

Mrs. Michael Meyer who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving slowly.

The Misses Edna Worthington and Lena Leedom, of Hatboro, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Worstall entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Roddick, of Hatboro, and family, of Forest Grove, last Saturday afternoon and evening.

FOUR HORSES AND 20 PIGS BURNED IN BARN

Over 100 Chickens Also Perish when Large Barn on Lamar, Ridge Farm Near Bustleton Was Destroyed—Fire Companies Find Hoss Too Short—Gill Cornell, Tenant, Suffers Great Loss.

In a fire which destroyed the barn and other buildings of a farm occupied by Gill Cornell, Red Lion road, between Huntingdon Valley and Bustleton pike, early Thursday morning, four horses, twenty pigs and 120 chickens were burned to death. A wagon house, containing a number of wagons, carriages, farm implements, together with 150 tons of hay, were consumed by the flames. The origin is unknown, and the loss will be about $7,000, partly covered by insurance.

For more than an hour after the firemen arrived they were unable to obtain water, the nearest pump being almost a mile distant, and the chemical streams were the only extinguishing forces available. When hose connection was finally accomplished the flames had gained such headway that the firemen decided to let the fire burn itself out, and confined themselves to protecting nearby property.

The barn was on the Lamar Ridge farm and was a large stone and frame structure.

The fire was discovered at 1 o'clock by Cornell, the tenant. Aroused by the glare of the light in his room, he saw the barn in flames and awakened his family. All hurriedly dressed and rushed to the rescue of the live stock. In the meantime other farmers formed a bucket brigade, taking water from wells nearby. Efforts were made to release the animals, but the rescuers were kept back by the intense heat.

Chemical Company No. 6, from lower Bustleton, was summoned, and although it reached the farm with all dispatch the flames were beyond control of the single company.

A second alarm, which brought Engine Companies No. 38 from Holmesburg, six miles away, and No. 14 from Frankford, eight miles distant. A chemical engine also came from Fox Chase. Before they arrived the flames had consumed the barn and wagon shed, several other outbuildings and four haystacks, which contained 15 tons of hay. Horse from all the barns were coupled and taken to the nearest place, more than a mile away, where water could be secured, the buildings the roof and north walls had fallen in. Dwellings close by were menaced, but the firemen prevented their getting out of hand.

Fearing their homes would catch, men and women carried articles of furniture to the road, piling their belongings up at a safe distance. Cattle were removed from several barns and driven to more remote fields.

The flames were visible for miles and drew hundreds of persons from the countryside to the fire. It was not until late in the morning that the firemen extinguished the flames. Cornell is unable to tell what started the fire. He suggested it may have been caused by tramp.

Davistown—Southampton

Mrs. G. A. Parker recently entertained the ladies' auxiliary.

Frederic W. Edwards has rented his house on Second street pike.

Mrs. Nellie Miles has been visiting Richboro friends this week.

Ellas Leedom has been making extensive improvements to his house on Second Street pike.

The regular monthly meeting of the Southampton Fire Company will be held this Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stout on Sunday made an automobile trip to West Philadelphia, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leedom.

The ladies of Southampton met on Wednesday night and decided to hold a catered candy bazaar on Saturday afternoon, May 20th, proceeds for the Fire Company.

The Junior base ball nine lost to the Beattys nine on Saturday morning. The first nine easily defeated the Dodge Company's nine on Saturday afternoon, on a score of 4-54.

A fire drill of the Southampton Fire Company will be given at Davistown this Saturday night at about seven o'clock. A large bon fire is to be made and both engines are to be used. Come and see this demonstration.

The opening of the base ball season will be held this Saturday afternoon on the home ground, when the Trevoise team will be over to cross bats with the local boys. Koroah, of Hatboro, will be the pitcher for the home team.

Cupid is playing hot with Southampton teaching force again this year. Mr. and Mrs. Krenson, of Newtown, our primary teacher, has announced her engagement, as has also Miss Elsie Miller, of Readingville school teacher.

Wunder and Buchanan tracts of land at Penryn. Through this purchase he will control all the land between the township line and Morris road and Penryn place. The tract measures 250 acres, and is one of the most desirable pieces of land in that vicinity.

Asker R. Lear, owner of a string of creameries in Bucks county, will soon commence the building of a creamery and pasteurizing plant at Doylestown with a capacity of 20,000 pounds of milk a day. Mr. Lear says he is making this plant on account of the statutary regulations governing milk shippers, which make it difficult for the shippers to send their milk to Philadelphia.

H. J. Dager, Inc. real estate agent,
Ambler, reports the following: Sold for Charles F. Schabinger, of Doyle-town, the former George J. Miller farm, near Doylestown, known as "Cedar Hedge Farm." The tract is 100 acres, and to Henry P. Schneider, a well known contractor and builder, of Philadelphia, at private figure. Mr. Schneider will take possession about May 20th. Also sold building tract No. 190, comprising approximately one-half acre of ground, fronting on Randolph avenue near Glencoe avenue, Ambler Highway, to John Roberts, of Ambler, who contemplates the erection of a large, modern house on same during the coming summer. Also, sold lot No.
42, Chestnut Hill, fronting on Whitemarsh avenue, near Stanton avenue, Chestnut Hill, to C. H. Warner, of Flourtown, who purchases with the expectation of building a modern home.

HARTSVILLE

Families are now being served with the toothsome home-grown asparagus.

Miss Sadie Roush entertained her brother and friend on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Miller, of Noble, spent the week-end and Sunday with relatives here.

John Harvey has taken possession of the farm he recently purchased and vacated by Robert Taylor.

Lawn mowers have been in operation this week. The grass has grown rapidly with the few summer days.

Postmaster and Mrs. J. M. Carr spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jones, of Newtown.

Joseph M. Carr has had some new wire fence made to replace the rails removed along his property on Bristol road.

An addition is being built to the residence of Mrs. Samuel Long. John Ramsey's force of men will do the work.

A number of our residents attended the moving of Robert Taylor, on Monday to his newly purchased farm near Eureka.

Rev. S. G. Boardman is numbered among the villagers who have improved his property by having a new cement walk laid.

Mrs. Charley Weaver has returned to her home, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Lynch, of Tiooga.

Farmers are hustling their belated spring work along during the fine weather. Some have their oats sown and garden making is in progress.

The Hathoro Baking Company served their patrons with bread, etc., delivered in their new automobile, for the first time in this neighborhood on Tuesday.

The communion will be held in the Hartsville church on Sabbath next, when Rev. Benjamin M. Gennell will preach on "The Problem of the Church," answering some objections to the church. All are invited, and will be cordially welcomed.

The Nehemiah of Warwick church extended an invitation to the Presbytery of Philadelphia. To hold its July meeting in the church, and recommended that Presbytery take a retreat at the Log College for several days. Presbytery at its last meeting voted to take a retreat to Log College in September.

WYNDMOOR

Frank Herman, of Willow Grove avenue, is having his porch repaired.

G. Machler, of Ardmore avenue, has had a veranda built at the front of his residence.

Frank P. Myers is having a new green house built by Lord and Burnham, New York.

The Aid Society of the Lutheran church met in the Bible school room on Wednesday evening.

William Schaefer is having his house on Flourens avenue embellished with a new coat of paint.

William Butler attended the funeral of his brother, Daniel Butler, on Saturday morning, at Limekiln spike, Glenside. Interred in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Bethayres and Huntingdon Valley

The many friends of Thomas Fletcher are glad to see him out.

Mrs. C. H. Wynkoop is slowly improving from her recent illness.

George Utz, Jr., and family, of Ligon, spent Sunday with Mrs. E. Jackson.

Miss Jane Carter is seriously ill with pneumonia, and is under the care of a trained nurse.

"Butterfield House" presents a nice appearance since it has been repainted by J. Pace and force.

Miss Rita Fullmer, of Germantown, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Woodward.

Springfield Water Co. is laying a line of pipe around Murray avenue. The town is now well supplied with water.

Miss Clara Marple, a former teacher at the High School, died at the home of her sister in Germantown, on the 27th ult.

Mrs. Jesse Tomlinson and daughter have returned to their home after an extended stay at the home of J. H. Danehower.

Steve's popular mail boy sustained a fracture of his right leg, last by falling from the hay now, and is now confined to the Hahnemann hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Leedom entertained on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. William Leedom and daughter, of Hathoro, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Johnson and daughter, of Southampton.

There was considerable excitement on Saturday morning when it was discovered that H. B. Leedom's stable was on fire. The men as well as the ladies formed a good volunteer company, and had extinguished the blaze by the time the fire company arrived. The damage was slight. It is supposed to have been caused by a bonfire.

S. Thompson Terry and Master James A. Entwistle visited in Ivyland on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCarter, of Narberth, were guests of Mrs. E. H. Pier and family, of Ligon, on Sunday.

The Bethayres base ball club will open the season this Saturday afternoon in Halliwell's meadow with a practice game.

A sale of home baking products will be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church this Saturday evening.

It is with much regret that the friends of Miss Ada L. Pierson learn of her being compelled to undergo an operation at the Medical-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia. From last reports her condition is somewhat improved.

Joseph Graham died on Saturday morning, after a long illness. He was 62 years of age and leaves a widow and two children, Jacob Graham, of Bethayres, and William Graham, of Jenkintown, both married.

The deceased has had charge of B. Lippincott's farm for about 20 years. Interment at Wm. Penn cemetery on Tuesday.

H. Benton Leedom was surprised and grieved on Wednesday morning to find all but one of his flock of young ducks dead. Some of the young ducks had entered the duck pen during the night and had cut the throats of the adults and young.

Edward Linnard, of Lismore avenue, has accepted a position in the Glenside National Bank and will succeed George Glitz, who resigned to accept a position with Gus Stoeffer, at the new garage at Jenkintown, which opens Monday.

The Glenside base ball team will try out this team Saturday and a team will be picked out that will, in all probability start the season. The regulars and youngsters will play this Saturday afternoon, and a good game is expected.

Mrs. Ada Jones, 32 years old, of Weldon, died on Tuesday in the Germantown hospital, after giving birth to a daughter, two girls and one boy. The deceased is survived by her husband, who lives on the Kelly estate, and five small children.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Men's Association of Carmel church will be held on Thursday evening, May 11th, at the home of the enjoyment. The meeting spent last year, the association will be well represented, as a good time is promised.

Mrs. Daniel Stout entertained the following ladies at her home on Mt. Carmel avenue on Wednesday afternoon of this week: Mrs. Fred W. Wundler, Mrs. George Kriller, Mrs. Fred G. Krehell, Mrs. Walter H. Wilson and Mrs. James Diton.

Harry C. Eigner, Jr., has vacated the Methodist property on Harrison avenue, and moved temporarily to a house on Mt. Carmel avenue, below Edgely avenue, until he gets possession of the Henderson property on Menlo avenue, which he recently purchased.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Mary Ann W. Goodwin, of 332 Roslyn avenue, Glenside, on Tuesday. Deceased was 64 years of age and has resided at the above address for quite a number of years, where Mr. Goodwin has been interested in the real estate business.

The community was very much shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Norman Packenham last Saturday, as he was very well liked and had a host of friends in Glenside, where he formerly lived. The funeral took place in Doylestown on Tuesday afternoon.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. Packenham, who was formerly editor of the Glenside News, as we know his loss was great.

The DeFord Field Club gave the local Glenside club team a great game last Saturday, as it took our boys 11 innings before they got the big end of the score. The game was featured by the masterly pitching of both sides and the excellent fielding of the DeFord team, down to a few hits, especially Franklin, who was in excellent form. The final score was 2 to 0. Don't forget to come out and give the team all the encouragement possible as we want them to make a good showing in the North Penn League.

Churchville

Mrs. George Jamison has the grip. John Bradford has been quite sick with measles.

Lafayette Cornell has all his buildings insured.

Mrs. William Cornell spent Tuesday in Philadelphia.

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label of alum baking powders must show the ingredients.

BECAUSE Doctors & Hospitals failed to CURE you is not PROOF that you are incurable

Mrs. Elizabeth Schaffer, 49 McKean street, Phila., Pa., writes: "I had a pain on my left side for about seven years. It was used by the doctors that I had heart trouble. They also took an X-ray picture of me and said that I had enlarged blood vessels around my heart. I had been treated by a number of doctors and at three hospitals, but could get no relief. I have undergone two operations, but was expecting to be operated on for the third time at one of the hospitals in Philadelphia, when all preparations had been made for my operation. I began to feel very bad, and was getting well when one of your booklets came to my hand and as I read it, I was convinced by the numerous testimonials in it that I might find a remedy. I did not intend of going to the hospital. I commenced using MATUSOW'S NULPREX (tablets), which has cured my pain, and I feel well in every respect."

"I am glad to say that I am using MATUSOW'S NULPREX (tablets) now, when I feel any pain, and I feel well in every respect. I will cheerfully recommend MATUSOW'S NULPREX (tablets) to all my friends and to any sufferer. My husband and I feel well in every respect. I thank you for what your NULPREX has done for me."

To be at liberty to publish my letter if you desire.

What MATUSOW'S NULPREX (tablets) did for Mrs. Schaffer it can do for you if you suffer from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Piles, Gout, Lumbago, Vertigo, Constipation, Dropsy, Kidney, Liver, Bladder, Bowel or Stomach trouble. It cures the blood and regulates the bowels. Should be investigated by all who suffer and their sufferings will be ended. MATUSOW'S NULPREX (tablets) is sold and recommended by Walter Ruchwell, the well-known druggist of Hatboro, Pa., and by all up-to-date druggists; also for sale (per by mail) at the Nulprex Laboratories, 184 Columbia avenue, Philadelphia.

Write for booklet. Money refunded if not benefited.

HORSE RAN, DRIVER HURT.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Nicholson, of Jenkintown, were badly hurt in a runaway accident near the Philadelphia and Reading Railway station. The horses became frightened and bolted and ran, and the occupants of the carriage were thrown out. Mr. Nicholson suffered severe cuts and bruises, and Mrs. Nicholson suffered from shock and excitement. Physicians discovered a fracture of the skull, and Sunday night an operation was performed on Mr. Nicholson. The operation was successful, and Mr. Nicholson's recovery is expected.

FIREMEN WANT MORE MONEY.

Jenkintown's two volunteer fire companies want more financial aid from the borough and Jenkintown's Town Council has deferred action on the request by referring the matter to its Finance Committee. The fire-protection service is purely voluntary. There are four companies, the Pioneer and the Independent. Both receive an annual appropriation of $300 from the borough and the assertion is made that it requires more than $1000 each year to maintain and operate each of the organizations.

Tacy Lenhart entertained friends on Sunday.

J. W. Parker and wife entertained friends on Sunday.

David Kates and wife entertained friends on Sunday.

Anna B. Krahel visited her sister, in Philadelphia, on Sunday.

Pastor Barnes, of the M. E. church, entertained friends on Sunday.

Dr. Cooper's sermon at the Baptist church on Sunday morning was "The Eternal Sonship of Jesus Christ."

Mrs. Kate Lenhart has returned home after spending a week with her brother at Frenchtown, New Jersey.

The Rev. George Alcorn, of Philadelphia, preached for Pastor Barnes, at the M. E. church, on Sunday to a large congregation. His morning subject was "Needs Supplied." His evening subject was "The Christian Race." The ordinance of baptism was administered in the evening.

George W. Wall died on Friday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. E. McElroy, in his 76th year of his age, of heart trouble. The funeral services were held on Sunday evening. Pastor Barnes preached the sermon. The funeral was held on Monday morning. Interment in West View cemetery.

His last wife, two sons, William Wall, of Yardley, and S. H. Wall, of Doylestown, two daughters, Lillian Wall, of Doylestown, and Mrs. Louis McElroy, of Jenkintown. He was born and raised near Bridge Valley, Bucks county, has been a resident of Jenkintown for the last fifteen years. He was honest and industrious, respected by all who knew him.

Mrs. widow of Oliver Kulp, died at the home of her son-in-law, Edmund Craft, on Friday, April 28, in her 82nd year. She had been an invalid for a long time. The funeral was held on Monday morning and the sermon was preached by Pastor Barnes, of the M. E. church. Interment in the M. E. church cemetery at Montgomery Square, where Mr. and Mrs. Kulp were members for many years. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Stiles M. Fennire, of Glenview; Mrs. George Asure, of Oak Lane, and Mrs. Edmund Craft, of Jenkintown. Mr. Kulp was born and raised at Prospectville in Horsham township, was a good Christian woman, respected by all who knew her.

EUREKA

Mrs. J. Allan Horner spent Sunday at her parents' home.

Miss Adeline Larezelere, of West Chester, spent Sunday at her home.

Robert Taylor moved on Monday to the farm, which he recently bought.

Mr. and Mrs. John Green, of Lawrenceville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Perry.

Mrs. Linford McEwen has over 300 little chicks, and is raising them all with hens.

Communion services will be observed in the Pleasantville Reformed church, on Sunday morning.

Nine young people, three girls and six boys, united with the Pleasantville Reformed church on Sunday.

Misses Margaret Carrell and Katie Fleischauer, of Jamison, were Saturday visitors of Mrs. G. S. Perry.

While Mr. and Mrs. L. MacNair and Mr. Raymond MacNair were going to church the front wheels of the buggy were broken, throwing the occupants out but not injuring them.

William M. Holbert, agent for Matthias Winiaszowski, held a successful sale Saturday of his personal property. Good prices were realized.

Napoleon's Peepholes.

A curious Napoleonic relic still preserved in St. Helena is a pair of shutters, each with a peephole. St. Helena was strongly garrisoned in Napoleon's time for divers reasons, and the British soldiers exercised on Deadwood plain, close to Longwood.

Napoleon liked to look at them, but did not like them to look at him; hence those two shutters, one with a hole on a level with his eye while standing and the other with a hole adapted to his vision while seated.

Hard to Deny.

As Miss Hyattia Squares reached the culminating point of her lecture on "Woman's Rights and How to Win Them," she turned her back to the audience and stood in an attitude of defiance.

"Talk of man!" she cried. "What has he ever done for woman?"

"He furnished the model she's trying her best to imitate!" boomed a manly voice from the rear of the hall.

And then a palpitating silence reigned for nearly a minute.

TREVOSE

A carload of lumber has arrived at Neshaminy Falls and a score of carpenters are at work making some much needed repairs in the buildings of Poplar Park.

The government at Washington reports that fifty thousand persons have been killed in the earthquake which struck the tracks of the railways of the United States during the past eleven years. Many of the fatalities were caused by flying bolts and puts, broken brake-shoes, tires coming off wheels, etc.

Eben Worthington is the proud possessor of "Hawthorn," a spirited "hawa" from the stables of John Leary.

Frank C. Fisher, Frank Shepard and Charles E. Schuyler were among the four thousand Nobles of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, who were present on Wednesday night. Two hundred Nobles came from Baltimore on a special train and distinguished potentates were present from Trenton, Newark, Brooklyn, New York, Boston and other cities. Professor William Brewster presided at the banquet, and the famous band of Doctor Thomas regaled other numbers. The evolutions of the Arab-patrols were superb, after which came the traditional banquet.

From time to time there have been accounts of base columns of robbers at Treves, Oakford, Neshaminy Falls and other places, and for upwards of two years it has been the impression that these desperadoes were committed by a person or persons familiar with the places robbed. There were no arrests at Treves, but a man who was apprehended in Philadelphia last week. He was wearing a coat which was stolen at Treves, and which was the last issue, and had two of the four rapiers. His articles mentioned were pawned at South Street and the tickets issued enabled Special Officer Shuck of the Reading to take in the rascal, who is now at the county jail.

It is known by a number of people in our vicinity as one who worked upon the new Neshaminy dam, and the line, while it was under construction in 1906, in view of which he might be familiar with the dam, and the section. As the hearing will be held shortly, it is thought that Damiano may have difficulty in satisfactorily accounting for possession of the stolen articles.

An excellent vaudeville show, in which some of our local talent is interested, will take place in the hall at Somerton on Friday and Saturday nights, May 12 and 13. John Coates, William Bellows, Doc W. Kline and Samuel Sichel, all of Somerton, constitute a quartet of merry-makers, who will appear in a side-splitting comedy, Joseph Tomlinson, of Treves, will appear in a "Japanese Prince," and Abram Updike will impersonate a female character.

company is large and as they have been rehearsing for several weeks the performance should be good ones.

At a recent meeting of the Treves Athletic Association, Mr. Edward B. Sands, Somerton, was elected to be manager of the Treves baseball team for this season. During the winter months Edward has been boxing match for the gentlemen, who have had weekly bouts at Treves. He has warrants the vicinity in having him fetch to our village circles the peasant for a while. Already, Clarence Vanant of Oakford, has been chosen as one of the backstops, and as he was formerly with the professionals in Hagstoville, Treves, he is a member of the other league and is known as a fine catcher and a heavy hitter, it will be no surprise if he is chosen to produce his equal in Robert Worthington, of Treves, the club will have one of the most cunning pitchers in the business.

He has a new curve, described by an onlooker as a cross between a foister and an out-shoot. William, the grasshopper, is to be shortstop; the team will be worthy the sobriquet of "eat 'em alive, Jim." Really a bad man in a good place, in William, Treves, who will often be spelled Treves) will be seen as usual in left field. William will be known to many, in a long distance thrower, heavy hitter and can run like a thief. J. Shoemaker will follow the other garden and is also fierce on the bases. He is known by our fellows as "the bulldog," and form this it will be seen that no game will be given up until "the rest is rest is hung."

The first game will be played on May 15th (th) at the usual place, P. A. depot, Treves, and will begin at 8 o'clock. While there will be no fixed charge to witness the games, the management respectfully suggests that no pennies or five-cent pieces be deposited in the collections. The expense of keeping a creditable club in the field is considerable, such as balls, bats, shoes, uniforms, traveling expenses, etc., and it should be with at least ten cents to any male to view a game. Of course there are no objections to "quarters" from our old friends who in past years have aided us greatly with their liberal donations. At this writing, Tuesday, the names of other players can not be given, but several good ones are under consideration. They are men from Neshaminy Falls and elsewhere in Bucks county. Get the Harbors Spirit for reports of games.

 Of life and pain,
 Baffled longings,
 Hopes untold.

Gave to you
 The farm of fire,
 Love like deep waters,
 Brave desire.

Ah, when youth's rapture
 Went out in vain,
 And all seemed over
 Was all in vain?

O soul obscure,
 Whose wings lie bound
 And soft death folded
 The wings of ground;

Rising lady,
 In the new dawn,
 Who gave us Lincoln

A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. George Wildman, of Langhorne, on Sunday evening, it being the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Miss Sophy Beavon Borie is the guest for two weeks of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Middleton Fisher, at Alverthorpe, their country place at Jenkintown.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Harte and Miss Katharine Harte, of 1903 Spruce street, Philadelphia, came this week to their country place at Abington. Later they will spend the summer at North East Harbor, for this summer.

Mrs. George Philler, Jr., who previously in her marriage had been Mrs. of last week was Miss Carl Benson, will be the guest of honor at a five o'clock tea, given by Mrs. Samuel Bryan Scott, of Philadelphia, at the Hamilton house, Chestnut Hill, on Thursday, May 11. Among the ladies who will receive Mrs. Philler are Mrs. Mary E. Benson, Mrs. Lewis F. Benson, Miss Elizabeth Phillips, and Mrs. Edwin N. Benson. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will make their home at Chestnut Hill, having taken a house on Bethlehem pike, near the Reading station.

Vernet in a Storm at Sea.
Vernet, the celebrated painter of sea scenes, came in the study of nature. He made several long voyages in his younger days in order to observe the various scenes which the changing elements exhibit. In one of these expeditions undertaken merely for the sake of the art a most violent gale of wind arose, when Vernet, without at all being alarmed, desired one of the sailors to lash him fast to some of the rigging. Upon this request he attended with thunder and lightning and with every circumstance that could add to the horror of the scene, and consternation and terror set on every countenance, but in the young painter every emotion was lost in that of admiration, which so wholly engrossed his attention that he even forgot to cry out when the storm increased to the most enthusiastic terms. "Good heavens, what a noble scene!"

EMPLOYEES' SHANTY BURNS

Small Frame Building in Willow Grove is Destroyed.
Fire early Sunday morning destroyed a frame building used by constructing employees in the Willow Grove Park. The fire was discovered about three o'clock and in a few minutes the building was consumed.
The Willow Grove Park Company responded to the alarm, but the flames had spread all over the building when they arrived.
The building contained tools, implements, materials, etc., worth several hundred dollars.
The fire lighted up the scenic railway, but fortunately there was no wind to carry sparks in that direction.
John Fahrenholz, night watchman, claims to have been in the building only a little while before the fire broke out. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent when a surprise party was tendered Miss Ella White, at her home on the Daville road, Saturday evening, April 29th.
The evening was pleasantly spent with music, singing and games. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Evans, Mrs. Rachael Bilgus, The Misses Edna White, Jennie and Helen Hamilton, of Willow Grove. Misses Ruth, Clara, Edythe, and Jakey, of Rockville, and Miss Clara Decker, Edgar Donley, James K. and Horace Hough, of Wm. Lee, of Amos Steeple, Robert Neely, of Roslyn, Raymond Ardon, and Harry Pollock, of Wm. Lee, of Charles Haege, of Philadelphia, and Harry Smith, of Germantown, George Crossley, of Downingtown.

Harry Kates has planted evergreens in front of his porch.
Some landscaping is being done in front of the Ferguson office.
Mechanics are pushing work on a new house on Highland avenue.
Builder E. H. Krewson has laid out the Dougherty house on the Ferguson lots.

The residence occupied by P. P. O'Brien on the Frazier place is being repaired.
Mrs. Philip Robbins has handsome beds of tulips in full bloom. They are very beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kinsey will entertain the Horsham Farmers' Club, this Saturday evening.
A large force of men under charge of Road Master Wainman are engaged on the work of macadamizing the Daville road along the Cut-off road.

Mechanics are at work on the new house at the entrance to P. S. Blotta's place on the Doylestown pike. Mr. Blotta has recently planted many evergreens.

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board has appointed Dr. George T. Van Buskirk, of Willow Grove, dairy inspector for portions of Moreland, Warminster, Warwick, Southampton, Northampton and Horsham townships.

At the regular meeting of the Willow Grove Building Association held on Monday night, all the old officers were re-nominated for the coming year. The next meeting will be the annual election and at the same time a new series of stock is to be opened. The Building Association is doing a large amount of good in this community, where it is assisting many persons to erect homes and save sufficient money for the purchase of homes. The Association has a demand for money for nearly twice as much as is received, this makes shares of stock in the association good for those who are investing.

W. C. T. U.
The Willow Grove-Abington W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. William McCall, on Horace avenue, Abington, Tuesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Baun, presided, opening the meeting with scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. G. S. Palmer, of the mothers' department, gave an encouraging report of the progress of the department.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. Dyre Moyer, made the following report of the finances of the Union: Total receipts from the Urnsin concert, $45.00, expenses $20, net profit, $25.00, making the total amount in the treasury to date, $104.00.

The new constitution was a second reading, and unanimously adopted, and the secretary was ordered to have copies printed for the use of the members.

It was decided to hold an anniversary service in June, every member to be asked to try and celebrate the occasion by bringing in at least, one new member. It is therefore, hoped that all will work with a will, during the coming month.

After transacting minor business, the Society adjourned to meet the first Tuesday in June, at the home of Mrs. Arnold Phillips.

His Defense.
It was shortly after midnight, and the colonel had caught Rastus red handed.
"Well, Rastus, you old rascal, you," said he, "I've caught you at last. What are you doing in my henhouse?"

"Why, Marne Bill," said the old man, "I-I don't heed such a cackle in a di-yere coop dat I-I thought mebbe de ole hen gon lay an egg, an' I-I wanted ter git it for 'fo' breakfast while it was fresh, sah."

A PLAIN STORY AND A HALF COTTAGE
Design 93, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

This design combines an attractive exterior with a practical and economical interior arrangement. The reception room and living room are separated by a sliding door. In the living room there is an abundance of good wall space. While planning to get the other features many people often forget to plan places for their furniture. In the dining room is a built in sideboard or buffet, with four small windows above it. In the kitchen are a sink, cupboards, molding table, door bins and other accessories. The first story is finished in brick, laid natural in the kitchen and stained a soft tone of tobacco brown in the other rooms. The second story is finished in pine to paint. Birch floors throughout. Width of house, twenty-six feet; depth, twenty-eight feet. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,850.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one set of plans and specifications of design No. 93 for $15.

WANAMAKER & BROWN

6th and Market streets, Philadelphia, THE "NEW-OLD" OAK HALL

Spring is gentle, balmy, sunny Spring is stealing on us with velvet step. It storms blossoms on us instead of snowflakes. We must put aside what few winter overcoats we have left and then what?—A Spring suit with Spring overcoat atop of it will make a delightful change.

I shall not try to praise the Spring colors and Spring patterns—the task is beyond me. Every season this house of WANAMAKER & BROWN increases my wonder, they provide goods so abundantly, they like to serve people surpassingly well, so do I, we are one in this, and I am sure you are. We can't do too much for you. Whether you come early in the season or late, you will find me waiting for you.

Besides suits and overcoats for men and boys, we sell Furnishing goods, hats and shoes. By the way, do not forget our Women and Misses' Department, you will find here all the latest patterns of Tailor-made suits, coats, skirts and shirt waists. Will pay your railroad excursion fare from Haddon, on a purchase of $10.00.

ASK FOR ME IN ALL DEPARTMENTS, YOURS RESPECTFULLY,
E. D. FULMER Salesman.

NEWTOWN

There are several cases of mumps in merrill in town.

The addition on the north side of the National Bank building is now completed.

Dr. Francis Green, of West Chester Normal School, lectured in Newtown Hall on Friday evening.

A "Kraze" T will be given by the Epworth League of the M. E. church, on Tuesday evening, May 9th.

Miss Lavinia Eyre and brother, Frederick, will entertain at a card party this Saturday evening.

On Thursday evening last eight persons were confirmed in St. Luke's church, by Rev. Nathaniel Thomas, Bishop of Wyoming.

Miss Anna Smith, daughter of Mr. Hannah Smith, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Ely, who has been suffering from an attack of nervous indigestion, is sufficiently recovered to dispense with the services of a nurse.

George School met its first baseball defeat of the season when Drexel Institute beat it, on the home ground, with a score of 5 to 2, on Saturday afternoon.

Westmoreland had little trouble defeating the Bucks County League team at Newtown on Saturday afternoon, through a pitching of Barrett. Score 10 to 4.

The St. Luke's P. E. church is having concrete walks laid from the parish building to the church and from the front of the church to the rear of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chambers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frederick LeRoy and children, Robert Hopkins, of Tarrytown, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Erasmus Roberts and children, of Titusville, last week.

McKINLEY

The fife and drum corps held their first annual dance in Heger's hall on Wednesday evening. Refreshments were provided.

The bicycle club, of nearly 20 were out for a spin on Sunday last and with the intention of being photographed, assembled at the church road, but were ordered to disperse by an officer. They resented such interference but decided to avoid trouble moved on with no very pleasant feeling, towards the officer.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.FARMERS ELECT OFFICERS

Will Make Arrangements for Annual Picnic at Chestnut Hill Park.

An interesting and enthusiastic meeting of farmers of Montgomery county was held last Saturday, in the office of Attorneys Miller and High in Norristown, for the purpose of forming a permanent organization to conduct the annual farmers' week jubilee and picnic and to look after the welfare of the members in general.

Addresses were made by several prominent men of the county, and it was finally decided to that the permanent organization should be known as the Montgomery County Farmers' Picnic and Agricultural Association, and the attorneys were instructed to apply to the courts for articles of incorporation and a charter under that title.

An election for officers resulted as follows: President, Dr. J. C. Michener; First vice president, Captain H. H. Peteroff; second vice president, P. P. Ghosh; secretary, J. Milton Brooks; Treasurer, H. B. Auchy; directors, Isaac Parry, James K. Thompson, Moses Goddard, A. F. Saylor, Stephen Lewry, Harry Dannewer, Jesse Kriebel, B. F. Dannewer, Ambrose Teakle, Thomas Long, J. B. Krusen, P. P. Green, John Morris, J. Milton Brooks, H. B. Auchy, Dr. J. C. Michener, Captain H. H. Peteroff and John R. Kauffman, C. E. Halloway, Daniel M. Andrews, John H. Shultz, Montgomery B. Linderman, John H. McDowell, William H. Wagner, Henry Doehring.

LIGHTED LANTERN UPSET, BARN AND STOCK BURNED

All the Outbuildings, Horse, Cows, Chickens, Crops and Machinery Destroyed on the Farm of John Wright.

All the buildings on the farm of John Wright, at Penn's Manor, Bucks county, except the large brick house, were completely destroyed by the Saturday evening, together with stock, crops and machinery, entailing a loss of between $15,000 and $18,000.

Willie English, an eleven-year-old boy, employed by Mr. Wright, had been to Bristol and returned, drenched with rain. Mr. Wright told the boy not to take a lantern to the barn, but he had stated he could not put the lantern on the floor back of a horse, which kicked it over, spilling the oil on the floor among the inflammable material and catching fire. The blaze soon reached an alarming size. The boy became frightened and rushed out of the barn crying, "The barn's afire," and continued to run down the road. He has not been seen since.

The blaze quickly enveloped the barn and then spread to the carriage house, corn crib, wood shed and wash house, which were completely destroyed. A bucket brigade was formed and only by the most strenuous efforts was the big brick house saved, the roof being on fire several times.

Two horses, six cows, five calves, two bulls, 500 chickens, about 900 or 1000 bushels of corn, mow full of oats straw and all the farm machinery and implements were burned. The loss is estimated between $10,000 and $12,000, partly covered by insurance. Mr. Wright is 35 years of age and has not yet decided as to whether he will rebuild or not.

The Montgomery County Base Ball League will probably start its season on Saturday, May 27, and run until Labor day. At a meeting held last Monday night at Wheel Pump, Chestnut Hill the circuit was arranged whereby the six clubs will fight for this year's championship. The towns which had representatives present and which are to fight for the championship are Chestnut Hill, Port Washington, Mt. Airy, Edge Hill, Glenside and the Germantown Clevedon.

GLASS POULTRY HOUSES.

Certain city farmer poultry editors have chronic hysterics lest their readers use too much glass in their poultry houses.

We advise these editorial cushion pressers living in glass city sanctuaries not to throw stones at the pretty glass poultry house shown here, for, contrary to their scream, the glass does not wobble and drip ice water on the fowls and litter, nor do the chickens scratch their heads off, die of rump or freeze to death.

It is in this crystal palace all day and sleep in the back building.

A DANDY GLASS HOUSE.

One of the front windows is always open, and the hens get their sun as they dig their grain out of the litter. The glass part is 14 by 16 feet, 4 feet high front and 7 feet high rear. The back building is 8 by 16 feet and is divided in two parts, one for roosts and nests, the other for feed.

The hens in this glass house have kept so healthy and been so profitable that a second glass house has been built.

The second cut represents a small outside sun parlor or scratch shed. It

ST. JACOBS OIL

If you had, you would have stopped the pain and the limping. It is a mighty hard case that this tried, old-time remedy won't alleviate after a few applications. All druggists, 25c. and 50c.

IT CONQUERS PAIN

ST. JACOBS OIL, Ltd., Baltimore, Md.

It is 8 by 12 feet, 3 1/2 feet high front, 4 feet high rear, and glass is too low down, so that crows fight through it or smash their reflection. The foundations are concrete and go below frost and in the large house are one foot above the surface. The glass is put in on the greenhouse plan.

DON'TS.

Don't think that you are the sine qua non. The peacock spreads its tail and screams "I'm it!" then sees its ugly feet and gets a fit. Your feet may be of no unusual size, you may be fair to seeing human eyes, but have a care and do not play the ass, or, like old Ned, you may have to eat grass.

Don't set eggs that are abnormal in size, shape or texture. Medium sized eggs bring best chicks.

Don't be stingy with wicks. A new one for every hatch puts you on the safe side, and you need not bother about the lamp burning out.

Don't use a lanky lamp. It is risky, and evaporating oil spoils the air and floor. An extra lamp should be kept on hand for accidents.

Don't use an ordinary thermometer. Use the best by test and keep extras for breakage.

Don't depend on one wafer thermostat. They often burst or leak, and as extra comes in handy.

Don't start an incubator without cleaning the heater. Accumulated soot or dust in air passages absorbs the heat, makes smoke and may cause a fire.

Don't use soiled egg trays. Clean the screen of filth and shell and wash well so there is no smell.

Don't pack eggs on top of each other or so tightly in the tray that they may not be moved easily. On top they overheat; too tight, you break them.

CARBON DIOXIDE LAMP FUMES.

You never smelled carbon dioxide? That's just those old lamp fumes that kill germs in incubator eggs or make eggs hatch aseptic chicks that die from electricity, of course, are free from this deadly element, but where kerosene lamps are used, unless precautions are taken, this gas gets in its work. One lamp makes enough, but think how the air may be contaminated where twenty to sixty are burning. There are two ways by which this destructive gets to the eggs. Some incubator heaters leak lamp fumes right into the egg chamber, and when their lamps smoke soot pours in on the eggs and even blackens them and clogs the air passages. These are mostly the cheap, claptrap machines, whose heaters are not lapped, sealed, riveted or soldered properly. They are fire traps, and their explosive failures often discourage the amateur and rudely wreck his beautiful brood, air castles.

A good heater throws all fumes into the room, or these fumes are piped from the heater to the outer air.

Many neglect to ventilate the incubator room where the lamp throws off this gas, and it is carried into the egg chamber, and the embryo has no chance for normal and successful development. Thus the germ dies early and rots, the chick sticks in the shell, or the chick that hatches is worthless.

WHEN MOTHER LOST THE HEN.

Are you so proud as to forget the day when mother the clerk set? O man in pulpit, office, store. Think of those happy days of yore. When you, a barfoot boy of ten, Helped mother set the speckled hen!

Oh, how she screeched and scratched her feet! When mother raised her from the nest! Oh, how she drew her sharp beak back And gave you hand a fearful whack! Till tears ran down your freckled nose And scattered on your stumpy toes!

Then how she dropped her angry crest When mother filled her new made nest With eggs as white as driven snow, Which held the chicks in embryo? Oh, how she shuffled wings and legs To cover up those pretty eggs!

But, say, can you forget the day When you were playing in the hay, When you looked down at Speckle's nest And saw those chicks peep from her breast? Oh, how you danced and gave a shout—"Mother, mother, the peeps are out!"

Let man get rich, let him grow great, Whatever be his earthly fate, His mind goes back to boyhood's day, So full of love and sunny ray.

And wishes for those happy days again When mother set the speckled hen. C. M. BARNITZ.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Ivins entertained at their home, Pleasant, Bustleton, Wednesday evening, May 3rd, in honor of Mrs. Ivins' birthday. The evening was socially spent with music and games. Mrs. Ivins was the recipient of a number of gifts presented. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Ivins many more happy birthdays.

BUSTLETON

TROLLEY FOR BUSTLETON.

Councils Committee on Street Railways has approved the ordinance granting a franchise to the northeastern Philadelphia Street Railway to operate a line on the Bustleton place from Frankford avenue to the County Line and feeding lines through Bustleton, Wyberry and Somerton.

Thomas J. Ryan, chairman of the sub-committee appointed to investigate the needs of such a line, reported that it was much wanted as the only transportation at present being a line which charged 25 cents.

The northeastern Company agrees to the bond of $20,000 with Mayor Reuben that it will begin work within three years and to give the city five per cent. The ordinance is backed chiefly by capital from the district affected.

As in all the cases of street railway franchises within the city limits, the Rapid Transit Company has the right to build over the line mentioned if it so desires, but must state its intention within thirty days.

Mrs. Mary Gallagher died at her home on Sunday at noon. Mrs. Gallagher was a native of northern Ireland and came to America nearly forty years ago. She married the late John D. Gallagher, who died eleven years ago. She carried on a grocery business many years and until a few years ago a haberdashery. Mrs. Gallagher was noted and beloved by a great many friends and her loss will be most keenly felt by all. A requiem mass was celebrated on Wednesday at the Church of the Maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the funeral was held at St. Dominic's cemetery, Holmesburg.

OGONTZ AND ASHBOURNE

COMMISSIONERS' MEETING.

The township commissioners held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon. Vice President Dempsey presided as Mr. Widener is on a trip. The business of the meeting was transacted.

The commissioners have decided upon a course to prevent automobile speeding through the township. W. S. Schellenger, chairman of the police committee, has been at work on a plan which he now thinks is feasible. Courses will be measured and uniformed officers are to be stationed at both ends. When automobiles are approaching at too fast a rate, the officer will hold up his hand warning them to stop, but if they are not heeded, arrests will be made. There will be no traps where men are in plain clothes or hiding behind walls or bushes and there will be no attempt at grafting, as the automobilist sometimes call it, but fair play is to be the rule. These courses are to be in the congested districts where careful driving is a necessity. As most of the commissioners are automobilists themselves they detect methods in which the motorists are not given fair play.

Contracts were awarded for the collection of garbage throughout the township. Commissioner Stahl, of the Ashbourne district, who is chairman of this committee, has devoted much thought to this problem. He has been through his efforts that the plan has been worked out. Garbage is to be collected twice a week during the summer months and twice a week during the winter months. Garbage is to be put in cans and not more than 250 feet from the street or road. The wagons used are to be kept clean and neat. Property owners everywhere will be pleased with this arrangement.

Church to hold jubilee. More than 1,000 invitations will be sent out for the jubilee anniversary of fashionable St. Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday, May 14th. The pastor, Rev. J. B. D. Jones, was one of the founders, and which was consecrated May 16, 1861. The services will include a "Neighborly Night" in Jay Cooke Memorial hall, and a home-coming day.

Trolley car wrecks wagon. A trolley car crashed into a heavily loaded wagon on the element B. Newbold estate (Crosswicks Farms), Jenkintown, at Ogontz, Saturday. The wagon, driven by the front part of the car smashed in and a score of passengers in the car were shaken up. The driver of the wagon was hurt, but declined to go to a hospital.

Police department. Harry Coner, of Ogontz, was arrested by Officer Goehring early on Saturday morning. He was found in a drunken condition lying along the York road, close to the trolley track. He was given a ticket for being in a public place and was taken to the county jail.

Michael Bachon, of Philadelphia, was arrested by Officer Gann, on Thursday, May 4, at his home on the York road, near the trolley track. He was found in a drunken condition and was taken to the county jail. He was charged with being in a public place.

William Malot, of Philadelphia, 39 years old, was arrested by Officer Goehring, on Thursday morning. He was found on the York road acting strangely. He was taken to the county jail. He was charged with being in a public place.

John B. Lee has purchased an automobile. Mr. and Mrs. R. Reynolds have gone to Oquessoc, Maine, on a fishing trip for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Elkins, Jr., will give a dinner at their home, Hillcrest, York road, Elkins Park, May 11, in honor of Miss Marie Louise Elkins, who is to make her debut in the fall.

Superintendent E. B. Zeigler and Dr. Tegmeyer, a director of the public schools of Conshohocken, spent half a day as the guests of Superintendent Cleaver, at Cheltenham High school.

In our advertising columns will be found the names of the donors reporting the expenditures of tax money throughout the year. It is of importance to all taxpayers and should be read by them.

C. H. Stanley and Charles Langford, who were so badly injured by a runaway horse on the York road, at the top of Ogontz hill, several weeks ago, are getting along nicely at the Jewish hospital, in West Philadelphia.

At least one of the men was fatally injured, but both will recover. Tennis courts are being laid out on the grounds at the rear of the High school by the C. H. S. Athletic Association. They are for the use of the girls and boys and are expected to be used more by the girls than by the boys. It being the only out-door sport for the girls at the school.

Cheltenham High school baseball club had a bad case of stage fright on Wednesday afternoon when they played the Central High school on the home ground. Our boys were not in their usual form, and seemed to be nervous from the start. The score was 14 to 1 in favor of the visitors.

Taking advantage of Ervin's wildness in the first inning and Cheltenham's errors in the sixth and eighth innings, enabled Episcopal academy to defeat Cheltenham High base ball nine last Monday night. The Episcopal League grounds by the score of 7 to 2. Ervin, who twirled the opening inning, was the star of the game. He walked four batters. A scratch hit by Souder allowed the Cheltenham runners to score. Lorimer, who pitched for Ervin, had the Episcopal batters at his mercy most of the time. The hitting of Dyer and Souder and the all-around playing of the Lorimer brothers featured.

SIGHTS SEEN IN BRIEF VISIT TO GERMANY

tion in the virgin face, the truly angelic face of the Christ child, and the remarkable adoration of the two cherubs, below, you are spell bound and fascinated by this masterful production. Artists and lovers of art from the world over come here to not only see this picture, but also the thousands of others here on exhibition. We were told this was largely an English speaking city; however, if such is the case, we failed to realize it, for we had not been fortunate enough to have a German friend, Mr. Reinhardt, with us, our chances of being understood, except by motion, and a few German words we had picked up, would have been small indeed. This city abounds in points of interest for the tourist, and a full week could be spent here instructively. The day we spent at Potsdam in company with Frau J. H. Hamilton, a fine German scholar. This town has about 60,000 people, and has been for more than a century the home of Germany's rulers. It is here that Frederick the Great erected many palaces. Here is the magnificent Mausoleum where Frederick the Third and his consort, Queen Victoria's daughter, were buried. There is the great Sanssouci Park, where a great fountain most beautifully conceived, whose waters rise to a height of 120 feet. In this great park a central point is the Great Palace, a palace which he built for himself and which he died, and the rooms and furniture being as he left them to a long walk through the forest. It brings you to the New Palace, the summer residence of the present Kaiser. Such elegance we have never before seen and can not describe, but all who love the beautiful in nature and art, should see it if they can. Hamburg, a stirring city of 600,000 people was our landing place and we spent a day here. It is a great and valuable seaport, and on account of its protected position is as valuable to Germany as Philadelphia is to the United States. Charles I. D. B. Jones said the city was for the town, and much that was unsightly was wiped out by an awful fire in 1942. This gave an opportunity to rebuild on modern, useful and graceful lines, and it now presents an elegant appearance combined with utility. The agricultural aspect of the country is much different from ours. Part of the surface over which we passed reminded me of a trip by rail to the Atlantic City, there, pine and sand; here, sand and pine. The flat wet and muddy, and the ditches at least every 75 feet, and these drain into larger ditches, by which the land is drained and the crops obtained. Some of the country is fine and rolling, especially as you approach Dresden. Much of the country is in large farms, and the fences and very few hedges. Often a house is not in sight, then you will see a cluster of farm houses and barns. In many cases the house and barn are the same building. The houses are nearly all brick, one and a half stories high, with a chimney at the end, and are typical of this country. In many of these villages the church spire is seen, showing the religious sentiment of the people. From these farm villages the men and women with their families, and their children, go to the city, to the factory, to the office, to the school, to the church, to the theater, to the dance, to the dinner, to the party, to the work in the near or distant fields, and to the home to enjoy social intercourse. From what we saw, we inferred that the farmers wives and daughters of Germany were not reading many novels, or preparing elaborate articles for clubs, similar to our talented women's clubs of America; neither were they taking the refreshing afternoon naps, but "earning their bread by the sweat of the brow. We said, God bless America and her grand good women. There are also many small land owners who till their farms as good as good can be, and have a prosperous lot. The quaint old windmills were in plenty, and their windmills were added to the beauty of land and fen. The trees are under government protection, and can not be cut down except by consent, and then must be replaced by planting others. We saw whole fields of fir, beech, ash, birch and poplar trees, that had recently been planted and being cared for as any other crop. Every waste place was planted with trees, and the extent of the forests, as compared with our wooded lands, surprised us. But our most interesting resources is in full view here, and should be with us, for the horse is stolen we look the horse. It is time that we should take care of our wood lands, which should be planted.

As we neared the large cities we saw hundreds of small houses and small plots which looked like chicken houses and runs, and we concluded the chicken fever had struck this country the same as ours, but on inquiry we learned they were summer residences of the city's poor. These very modest one-story homes must be a boon to many a poor person suffering from the crowded city life. We did not expect to see as much difference between conditions here and in the States, but in the short time we were here we learned that Germany is a great country, and controlled by a great government. If peace and prosperity in these, we did not come in contact with it. If drunkenness exists as with us, it is kept out of sight. We saw men and women by the hundreds congregated in taverns and restaurants, drinking their beer and wine and eating, but none of the drunken order seen with us. Why is it that such differences exist in the two countries? It must be on account of the American disposition to reason, law, it must be on account of the valuable disciplinary education the Germans receive in their schools, and by service, it must be on account of the freedom from view of those who have no money, and the state, and the least, with us, on account of the prevalent thought that the rich may be taxed and punished, but the poor, the continual boasting of salaries of our public officials to a point away beyond the value of the service rendered, and placing incompetent men in lucrative positions as a reward for unreasonable work done for political leaders and ringsters, has a tendency to destroy the moral tone of our social fabric, and a disposition to ignore the law and bring it into contempt should be the aim of all good citizens to spread regard for law, and see that the law is kept over us are of good morality and competent to perform their responsible duties, and at a price that will be worth the while. We saw a great country, second to none, but the lessons that can be learned of the Germans in honesty, stability, competency, loyalty and perseverance should be learned by us.

ROSLYN

The midsummer weather Monday was enough to make vegetation fairly jump and it was a very busy day for farmers. A man who lives up in Roslyn said Wednesday that he had two plantings of corn in the ground and the first was up May 2, which made people here feel they were slow.

It has been learned that the 6.07 p. m. train, which accommodated a number of our people last year, will have its trip over the branch with the opening of Willow Grove Park. According to a man who saw the new schedule the train will not stop at run at the Grove, as it has heretofore done, but will go to Ivyland, thus scheduling the train, who would be obliged to wait for the 6.40.

The regular monthly meeting of the Improvement Association was held on Monday night, May 1st, at the home of Mr. J. H. Fennell, who acted as chairman. Locations were discussed for several new lights, which is understood will be placed in this section in the near future. The matter of additional trains will also be talked over and it was voted to call the railroad company's attention to a request for increased service, sent some time ago by the association and ask what can be expected in the near future. The importance of the evening was the vote to offer a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the vandals who destroyed the sign on the trolley waiting shed on Easter Monday night. Notices to this effect will be posted in the railroad station and in conspicuous places throughout the entire town. The Abington police are working on this case, which is altogether too serious to let go unnoticed and it is believed Chief Leever's men soon will get the hands of the guilty parties. A new sign will be placed in the same location and the association will endeavor to do up every possible way that vandalism cannot go unpunished in Roslyn.

SOMERTON

Mrs. Jane Stevens is still critically ill. Joshua Worthington is serving on the jury in the city.

Leslie Souder has taken a position with the Philadelphia Electric Co. There is a sign of a trolley line in what is Bustleton news.

Edward Sands and the Lenton family have moved into the Rose house. The Dickens Club met at the home of the Misses Tomblin on Wednesday evening of this week.

Preparations are being made by our local club to celebrate Memorial day with appropriate exercises.

Mrs. Ida Fletcher and son Vincent, of Philadelphia, are on their way to Bustleton, and move to Bustleton.

A. D. White is enclosing the porch at his store, which makes more room for the display of his goods.

The Somerton Building and Loan Association will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening of this week.

Much interest is being manifested in the minstrel show which is to be given by the S. G. C. in Ervin's hall on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 12th and 13th.

Mrs. A. R. White has been spending the past few weeks at the home of her son, A. D. White, who with his family have been severely afflicted with grip, but are now much improved.

The Somerton baseball team played a practice game on Saturday last and defeated their opponents. The regular season will begin on Monday (Saturday) with Somerton lined up against the Stratton F. C. A good game is promised.

You have many things about the place that could be turned into money through a half-inch ad. in the SPIRIT.

National Banks

Great and learned men are now busy investigating the financial systems of the world with a view of making the American banks the best of the most perfect that can be devised.

What ever these gentlemen have learned in these, we did not come in contact with it. If drunkenness exists as with us, it is kept out of sight. We saw men and women by the hundreds congregated in taverns and restaurants, drinking their beer and wine and eating, but none of the drunken order seen with us.
